United Association Launches Recruitment Drive:

The United Association of Journeyman and Apprentices of the Plumbing and Pipe Fitting Industry of the United States and Canada (U.A.) move to help fill the skilled labor shortages.

Waterloo, ON, June 27 2008: With the looming retirement of many baby boomers and the red hot oil patch in Alberta, there is a desperate need for skilled workers in the plumbing and pipe fitting industry. A recruitment campaign has been launched by the UA with a website to help sustain efforts and assist candidates explore all the exciting opportunities and advantages available with the UA all across Canada. Facts on UA Training and how to secure your future with the UA in Canada are all available at www.YourWorkingUnion.ca. Steve Morrison, Special Representative with UA said, "Niagara will be the first stop on the recruitment drive because so many decent paying manufacturing jobs have been lost here in recent years. Windsor, also hard hit, is next on the list."
